First night of the comical transder of Hernical Commence. ndence of the Herald.] SABBATH LECTURE. PHILADELPHIA, August 31. PHILADELPHIA, August 31.

Several nominations were made last evening by the whigs and locos. The former nominated John M. Scott, our present mayor, for the State Senate, Peter McCall, Esq., for mayor, both excellent men. Upon the Assembly ticket, the names of Charles B. Trego, Isaac Hazlehurst, Thomas G. Connor, Jas. Bayard, and John Gilder, were placed. The Locos have also made some pretty fair nominations, and altogether the people have men before them for office from which I think a good selection might be made. TICKETS TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. The case of Andrew McClain, charged with being a participant in late Southwark riots, was decided this morning upon a writ of habeas corpus, and the prisoner refused to be admitted to bail, and was remanded back to prison.

The case of John Dickey, an Irishman, charged with being a conspicuous rioter in the Kensington disturbances, and with shooting Georse Young, was also considered upon a writ of habeas corpus, and the defendant fully committed to answer the charge of riot and murder.

Notice to Mariners.

Goodwin Sands Beacon Camired Away.—Admiralty, Aug. 6.—The clerk in charge of her Majesty's naval yard at Deal, reported on Monday that a schooner in crossing the Goodwin Sands ran against and carried away the aslety beacon crected there some years since by Cading Bullock. From subsequent inspection, it appears that they were struck the top of the beacon on the western side and carried it away; that the mat is gone just above the surface of the sand, and that the whole is a perfect wreck held by the rigging and chain plates.

Admiralty, Aug. 7, 1844.—Captain Bullock is about to replace the asfety beacon on the Goodwin Sands. LECTURES ON GAMBLING.

It appears that the demand for domestic manufactures is not large enough to prevent a downward tendency in prices. In all the markets there are fair supplies; and in the immense importations from abroad, and in the increase in the manufactures in this country, we think there is but little prospect of a rise for the present. It is likely that as long as the existing tariff is in existence, the number of mills on this side of the Atlantic will increase, and competition in the business become so great as to keep the prices of domestic goods to a low point. This, we should think, must be the result of present movements. Principally selected from MOORE'S IRISH MELODIES, We particularly recommend a very fine assortment of Woolen and Silk Embroideries, and all kinds of Upholsterer's articles.

CURTAIN MATERIALS, TRIMMINGS AND WIN DOW SHADES.—The subscribers beg to invite the attention of strangers to their large stock of Upholstery Goods, just received in actor, from which they are prepared to execute orders for Bed and Window Curtains of the newest designs and on lower terms than any other house in the city. Their stock will be found be consist of silk and worsted de laines, tabouretts, damasks, Turkey red cottons, rich lace and muslin embroider ed curtains, galbons, gimps, cord, tassels, cornices, &c. &c., gether with Fainted Window Shades, just imported from Fance, of entire new patterns and pronounced the most magnificant Shades ever used; as also the various styles of painted American Shades, varying in price from $1 a pair upwards.

EMINENT SUCCESS IN THE TREATMENT OF DISEASES OF THE LUNGS AND LIVER BY DR. VONDERSMITH. 161 Greenwich street, New York. Lupwards of twenty patients laboring under these affections, and who were pronounced as incurable by their physicians, were recommended to make trial of Dr. V.'s skill. This occurred during the last mouth, and in this brief period he has restored the whole number to perfect health by the administration of his celebrated ladian Cough Balm and Lung Balsam medicines, which stand proudly preeminent in the cure of all diseases arising from coughs, colds, obstructed perspiration, &c. In their manufacture they differ from all others ever made here; the hair being singly insertied, and so equally distributed as to appear just issuing from the skin. In their form they cover no more of the brow than the natural hair does. Composed of hair which never loses its curl, and by the use of a flat elastic spring, (made expressly for himself,) which neither corrodes nor loses its elasticity, they fit so closely to the head, that the most critical observer cannot penetrate the deception.
